Your Explorers Club Membership not only supports the advancement of field research, scientific exploration and the orientation of young people toward careers in field sciences, it also includes these great benefits:

- Critical advisory, response, and evacuation services through Global Rescue.
- Subscription to Club publications including the quarterly Explorers Journal and Explorers Log, Club Roster and Events Newsletter.
- Invitations to Explorers Club Events including our Annual Dinner, Lowell Thomas Dinner, Public Lectures, Members Dinners, Exploration Seminars, and Seasonal Special Events.
- Use of Club premises including the Members Lounge, second-floor library and lecture hall, meeting rooms and LeFrak Terrace. Access to the Club’s research Collections, i.e. James B. Ford Library, Club Archives and Sir Edmund Hillary Map Room, is available by appointment.
- Permission to rent Club facilities at a discounted rate for press conferences and private parties.
- The privilege to participate in or attend events hosted by any of our 27 chapters worldwide.
- Reciprocal rights with New York City clubs, seven national clubs and eleven international clubs.
- Discounted rates with: Outfitters Fjällräven, Avedon & Colby, Cockpit USA, Brooks Brothers, and Rowing Blazers; New York City establishments such as Hotel Plaza Athenee, Hemingway African Gallery, Le Charlot, and Brasserie Cognac East; Hertz car rentals; and hotels in the United States and abroad.
- The opportunity to carry The Explorers Club Flag on approved field expeditions. Available to Members, Fellows and Term Members only.
- Networking opportunities through our members-only area of The Explorers Club website.
- The right to vote for the Board of Directors and run for elected office. Available to Members and Fellows only.
- The enjoyment of informal affiliations with the American Museum of Natural History, National Geographic Society, Royal Geographic Society, American Alpine Club and other important organizations.

For more information on these and other great benefits, please contact Member Services at membership@explorers.org or (212) 628-8383.